Here is Reliability in TV Circuitry

RCA Space Age Sealed Circuitry

The main arteries of a television receiver are its wiring and wiring connections. The advantages of RCA Space Age Sealed Circuitry are plain to see. They are precision-crafted, orderly, plainly marked for easy servicing. They're today's precision answer to yesterday's old-fashioned, all-hand-wired circuitry. Every etched-copper, permanently bonded board is an exact duplicate of the original master design developed in RCA laboratories. Two-thirds of RCA Victor TV circuitry (excluding tuner) is bonded on Sealed Circuit Boards. Eliminated are more than 300 hand-soldered connections that can come loose and cause trouble.

RAD Challenges County To Clean Up For Centennial Observance

A challenge to clean-up and paint-up for county improvement has gone out to many of the organizations of Appomattox, the result of cooperative planning between the Rural Area Development Committee and the Appomattox Garden Club.

At a meeting Wednesday, March 11, E. W. Carson, Chairman of the RAD Clean-up and Beautification Committee asked each club representative present to take with him an information blank on which his club may write out its plans to "clean up" the county.

The Garden Club, through Mrs W. W. Burke, announced the sale of bulbs and dogwood, possibly other plants, on a non-profit basis so that many areas may be replanted. The Garden Club, she says, suggests a "red and white" color scheme in flower planting, and is stressing the need for "mass plantings" to make the best possible effect. Redbud, dogwood, and pines were suggested for tree plantings.

RAD, in particular, has asked for improved general appearance of county highways and streets, with flowers, bulbs, and shrubs planted at appropriate places. RAD is supporting the effort to establish suitable dump areas in each community. "Contact service station operators," the leaflet suggests,' and others to get them to tidy-up . . . and generally make our county and towns more attractive."

Improvement suggestions include "more attractive mail boxes', said Carson, plus a program to identify farms by simple, attractive signs at road intersections.

Need Slogan

Carson said that the drive "needs a slogan" — something to spark enthusiasm. He asked each organization to fill in the information sheet and return to him. Garden club members will help with plantings, he said, and other groups are available to assist.

Supervisors To Discuss School Budget Tonight With Smith

County Supervisors and Superintendent Earl Smith will meet tonight (Thursday) at the School Board office to go over the countys school budget for next year.

At their meeting last Wednesday supervisors heard secondary road requests and considered a long list of other items in a meeting that lasted almost six hours.

Tax Rate Same

Tax rate for the next fiscal year beginning July 1, 1964, was set at $2.75 per hundred assessed valie, the same rate as last year.

Approve Planning Objectives

Supervisors approved the objectives of the Rural Planning Commission, Dr. S. R. Lawson, chairman.

New Pump For Tanker

Supervisors approved spending up to $500 for a portable pump to use with the county's newly acquired Water Tank. Mrs. J. K. Marshall told firemen they could use her building on Church St. to house the tanker.

Oakville Ruritans presented a resolution that all abandoned wells be filled up to protect livestock and humans. The club reported that there are several such wells in the area. "Its the law, said chairman Otho W. Martin, "and we need to remind the people of it.

Supervisors signed checks totaling $105,05.07 for the operation of county offices, schools, welfare payments and other items for the month of February

Supervisors agreed to pay Aubrey I. Moore $130.00 for a cow which died allegedly as a result of an attack by a dog or some other animal. The month previous supervisors paid out $102.00 as a result of five different cases of animals killed by dogs with unknown owners.

J. C. Hays, of the State Division of Forestry, Cumberland County, appeared to say that he will make an appointment with W. R. Shelton, of Appomattox, to make an estimate on the value of timber which Shelton cut by mistake from the countys "Poor Farm property.

Supervisors voted property improvements including new lighting for county treasurer Garland Plunketts office, and additional electric wiring and outlets for the county agents office.

Custorian Retires

Willie Pew, custodian of court house properties, sent in his resignation, effective March 13, because of ill health.

Garden Club Monday, 8 P.M.

Mr. J. A. Smith, County agent, will be guest speaker and show slides on "Beautifying the Community" at the Garden Club meeting, March 23, at the Appomattox Elementary School Library, at 8 p.m.

Exhibit arrangement: A rhythmic design using pine and spring flowers.

No Salary For Three Years

Red Cross Home Secretary Uses Own Resources To Help Needy

Mrs. Don Moses of Appomattox is quite busy on a "paying job' that brings her no pay. She is Home Service Secretary for the Red Cross, a position that usually carries a small salary. Mrs. Moses answered one hundred calls for assistance last year, using her own car and telephone to help county residents and their families. They have not been sufficient funds in the county Red Cross treasury to pay her salary for three years.

"Wherever there's trouble, there is the Red Cross," says Mrs. Moses. She's been secretary for twenty years.

"Some people just want to talk over their problems," says Mrs. Moses. Others are seeking a "hardship" discharge for their sons, but the "big thing" is messages — from families to servicemen wanting a "welfare report", and from servicemen about their families. If they do not keep in touch with each other, someone gets worried.

says Mrs. Moses. So the Red Cross steps in to get a report that the serviceman or the family of a serviceman are "all right". This means car travel and long-distance telephone calls

"We need a wide awake Junior Red Cross chairman here," says the Home Secretary, plus a wide - awake organization to carry on the many parts of an active Red Cross chapter, she added. Even without these, Mrs. Moses said, "Just to read about what they do in other places would be enough for me to support the Red Cross."

Fire-Cured Market Quotas

On February 28 Virginia fire-cured tobacco growers approved continuation of marketing quotas for three more years by a 95 per cent majority in the referendum. 51 per cent of the eligible growers voted.

Board Hears Road Requests

FFA Holds Father-Son Banquet

The Robert E. Lee Chapter, Future Farmers of America, of the Appomattox High School held their annual Father-son banquet Friday night, March 13, in the cafeteria of the high school. A total of 172 parents, guests, and members were present.

Sammie Scott, president of the chapter, acted as master of ceremonies. Lonnie Reynolds, chapter chaplain, gave the invocation. Norman Booth extended a welcome to the group assembled.

Glenn Anderson, state FFA secretary and senior at Randolph Henry High School, brought greetings from the Virginia Association of FFA.

A summary of the year's activities by the Robert E. Lee Chapter was made by Cecil Deaner and Kenneth Doss. A series of slides was shown depicting the many and varied activities of the group.

Miss Brenda Carter provided entertainment by singing several selections. She was accompanied by Miss Jane Richardson. Both of the young ladies are students at Appomattox High School.

Mr. Charles Torrence, local game warden for Appomattox County, and Mr. Samuel S. Scott, Jr., father of the chapter president, were honored by the Robert E. Lee Chapter with Honorary Chapter Farmer Degrees. This degree is the highest honor that a local chapter can confer upon an adult outside of the FFA. It is reserved for individuals who have rendered outstanding service to the chapter.

Thomas Lucado, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Lucado, of Route 3, Appomattox, received the chapters Star Farmer Award for 1964. Others who received awards as presented by the chapters advisor, Mr. H. B. Pack, were as follows: Dairying, Ronald Millner; Forestry, Cecil Deaner; Public Speaking, Ronald Millner; Livestock Farming, Thomas Lucado; Crop Farming, Kenneth Goin; Farm Electrification, Lonnie Reynolds; Soil and Water Management, Marvin Richards; R. M. Ashworth Farm Mechanics Award, which was established in the memory of the late Mr. Ashworth a former instructor of vocational agriculture, was presented by Mr. Dennis Torrence to Marvin Harris. This award is designed to recognize the individuals that has made the most outstanding record in the area of farm mechanics.

Sammie Scott, Cecil Deaner, Ronald Millner, Kenneth Doss, and John Farrar gave several short talks along the subject "Agriculture Is More Than Farming.

The cafeteria staff of the Appomatox High School served the meal with the help of local Future Homemakers of America members at Appomatox High School.

"Strange Acting" Fox Killed Tues.

Another "strange-acting" fox in Appomattox county was killed Tuesday morning by Assistant Chief Forest Warden, Berkeley Guy, of Oakville. The fox was turned over to Graham Pitsenberger, county sanitarian for examination by the State Health Department. Guy said the fox appeared to be "sick."

Bride Is Ready; Groom Says 'No' In Junior Class Comedy March 26

"Lights, Camera, Action! The bride is ready, the invitations are mailed, but the groom says "No.. Just such a phenomena will be produced for the public on Thursday, March 26, at 8 p.m. in the Appomattox High School auditorium. What's it all about? The junior class of Appomattox High School have combined their eagerness and talents to produce a play entitled "The Groom Said No."

Protraying Steve, the bewildered groom-to-be, is Milton Price, who is not in any mood for a marriage to his supposedly life-time sweetheart, Clara, who is protrayed by Donna Guill. Nothing adds more confusion and merriment to a courtship than a persistent Mother, Kathy Caldwell, a laissez-faire Father, Grey Hesson, and two overly-energetic and noisy sisters, Tina Trent and Susan Burke. Now, ordinary ordinary family affairs could be complete without a delightful (?) nosey next door neighbor, Aden, who just happens to be the town gossip. The story goes, "little pitchers have ears and this is certainly exemplified by eight year old Mary Alice Smith played by Anita Richardson.

Confused? o Amused? well, add sisters boy friend, an arch rival for Steve's love, Cynthia Richardson, and a new suitor for the birde-to-be, and your'ere in for entertainment.

The Juniors production is under the direction of Miss Jo Ann Self, eleventh grade student teacher from Longwood College. Mrs. Elaine Spencer is sponsor for the Junior class. Proceeds from the play will be used for the Junior-Senior Prom.

DAR Cancels Meeting Today

Daughters of the American Revolution, scheduled to meet today with Mrs. Stuart Farrar, Pamplin, have cancelled the meeting. No definite date has yet been set for the next meeting.

Longwood Student In Beauty Contest

Nancy Diane Chandler, salutatorian of her AHS gradualting class in 1962, is now a student at Longwood College. Although she is a dedicated piano student she enjoys sports of every variety.

Recipient of the American Legion Award per senior year in Appomattox, Nancy also was recomended for her work in editing the annual.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Emeline B. Chandler, and will be one of the beauties at the Appomatox Parade of Talent April 10.

Miss Dorcas Campbell, reigning Miss Virginia, will crown the winner of the local contest, who will go on to Lakeside to compete for the 1964 Miss Virginia crown.

See Nancy and all the other contestants April 10 at 8 p.m.

School Holidays

Appomattox County Schools will close at the end of the school day on Thursday, March 26 for the Easter Holidays.

Deadline For 1964 Feed Grain Signup Is March 27

Friday, March 27, is the last day for filing an application to take part in the 1964 feed grain program, J. A. Martin, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said today. He urges farmers who are interested in the program to call at the ASCS County Office as soon as possible.

"Time has a way of slipping up on us even though we think we have plenty," the Chairman pointed out. "Actually, there are only 6 working days left in which to sign up for this year's program. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. from Monday through Friday. We do not want anybody to be disappointed because he waited too long."

As last year, Mr. Martin explains, the feed grain program covers corn, grain sorghum, and barley. Minimum diversion under the 1964 program is 20 percent of the individual farm's total feed grain base. For diverting more than the minimum acreage from feed grain production into a conserving use, the diversion payment will be figured at a higher rate. If the diversion is 40 percent or more, the higher rate applies to the whole diversion.

Besides the diversion payments (part of which may be paid in advance if the farmers requests it), a participating grower also earns price-support payments on the normal production of the acreage planted to one or more of the three feed grains in 1964, and he is also eligible to put his crops under the regular price-support loans or purchase agreements.
